

Student Michigan Education Association at the University of Michigan-Dearborn Reach Out and Read Book Donations!

The Reach Out And Read program provides each child at a selected clinic with a book at their doctors appointments as well as advises parents of the importance of reading aloud to their child.

The Student Michigan Education Association at the University of Michigan - Dearborn is collecting donations of new or gently used children's books, which will be given to deserving children in low-income areas through the Reach Out And Read program. The children's ages range from six months to five years.

Donation boxes can be found on the University of Michigan Dearborn campus in CASL, the CIViC, Mardigian Library, and on the second floor of the Fairlane Center South building. Please place donations in the provided boxes!

Please contact President Jessica Stafiej at jstafiej@umd.umich.edu with any comments or questions you may have about SMEA or Reach Out And Read.
